What would be cooler than a trip to the North Pole? Maybe a delicious Polar Snowball. They are an easy treat to beat the summer heat.

Polar Snowballs

1 gallon ice cream
1 package flaked coconut
food coloring
jar or small plastic container with lid
12 muffin cup liners (paper or foil)
*Makes 12

Place coconut in jar or plastic container. Add 2-3 drops of any color food coloring. Put on lid and shake vigorously until all the coconut is tinted. Line a muffin tin with muffin cup liners. Sprinkle the coconut into the bottom of a shallow pan and spread evenly. Scoop ice cream into 12 balls. Roll each ball with two forks in the coconut until covered. Place in muffin tin. Freeze until firm. Enjoy!
