It's Not a Dream— An Anniversary Reading & FREE Bilingual Book Give-A-Way

Award-winning author and born storyteller Dawn Jeffers will present a reading and book give-a-way at Brown County Library (East Branch–Green Bay, Wisconsin) on April 27th at 6:30 p.m. This reading will be presented in both English and Spanish as part of El día de los niños / El día de los libros —The Day of the Child / The Day of the Book. It will be the first public reading of the newly revised and re-edited translation of Jeffers' Vegetable Dreams / Huerto soñado. Children attending this storytime will receive a free soft cover copy of the book to help celebrate the 10th anniversary of El día de los niños / El día de los libros —The Day of the Child / The Day of the Book. The day is meant to highlight the wonders of childhood and the importance of literacy in the lives of families.

Vegetable Dreams / Huerto soñado is an old-fashioned story of a multi-generation friendship and the importance of sharing and nurturing dreams. The story is told fully in both English and Spanish in full text translation styling. A keyword vocabulary appears at the end of the book to jumpstart learning in either language.

Dawn Jeffers is a Wisconsin native and holds degrees from both the University of Wisconsin—Green Bay and Lakeland College. She is a member of the Publishers Marketing Association and SCBWI.
