*Polar Slumber/Sueño polar by Dennis Rockhill

Dennis Rockhill is a true gem. Kids love his books. And parents too. For one night only, you can spend the evening with nationally – acclaimed illustrator to learn all about how his wordless picture books came to be – and why. Join Dennis for an intriguing presentation in an intimate setting, with discussion and dinner on Thursday, October 13, from 5:30-8:00 p.m. at the Tundra Lodge Resort, Green Bay. Your $25 is well worth the gourmet meal itself, but that’s only the start: enjoy a personal discussion and autograph session with one of wisconsin's rising stars. You’ll help area students to read too – all proceeds from the event will benefit area schools through the Newspapers In Education Program.

Seating is limited, so reserve your space TODAY!
