Isabel and her abuela love to cook. They make this tasty salad whenever the cactus are in bloom near their casa in the Southwestern desert. Try it at your house for a tasty addition to your favorite salad.

The Prickly Pear Salad

Gather some Prickly Pear Cactus
Cut the "tuna" (the red, radish-looking bloom on top of the cactus) from the cactus
Wash and slice the bloom into bite-sized bits
Add them to a salad
Eat and enjoy!

Keith Polette's children's book, The Winter Duckling, won the International Reading Association's Children's Choice Award. In his free time, Keith enjoys martial arts, photography, hiking, canoeing, and his cat, Emily. He lives in El Paso, Texas.
