A little girl loves to create special memories with her grandpa in Remember Me? / ¿Te acuerdas de mí? Maybe making Grandpa's Favorite Peanut Butter Logs was one of them! Kids and Grandpas both love them!

Grandpa's Favorite Peanut Butter Logs

1 (16 ounce) jar crunchy peanut butter
1 1/2 cups confectioners' sugar
2 cups crisp rice cereal
1 1/2 cups confectioners' sugar
1/4 cup water
*Makes 2 dozen

Using your hands, combine the peanut butter, cereal, and 1 1/2 cups confectioners' sugar in a medium bowl until well mixed. Roll into log shapes about the size of your little finger. Combine the remaining confectioners' sugar and water in a saucepan; bring to boil. Remove from heat and let stand a few minutes. Dip each log into glaze. Place on racks until glaze becomes firm. Store in airtight container with waxed paper between layers.

Sue Glass holds a BA in Elementary Education/French from Carthage College, a license in Administration from Concordia, and an MA in Curriculum & Instruction/Reading from Marquette University. She is a recent winner of the Herb Kohl Fellowship Award for Wisconsin teachers.

Although not an illustrator by profession, when W. Yunker was given the opportunity to illustrate Sue's Glass's story, he was thrilled. He's proud that his first book illustrations were for Remember Me? / ¿Te acuerdas de mí?
